ABOUT AIHP

AIHP is a one stop shop for the conceptualization, creation, implementation and management of world-class workplace environments. Our concept is unique; we are the first to offer corporate office space as a product rather than a group of outsourced services.

For our customers the age old business challenge of expanding, relocating or starting an office is reduced to answering a few short questions on basic business requirements. Sixty days later our customers plug in their laptops and start working, without the worry of ever having to change a light bulb!

Our backward integrated model is the foundation of our product. We are the largest corporate landlords in Gurugram, with over a million square feet of commercial real estate. Our in house specialized teams provide the end-to-end product delivery which includes conceptualization, design, architecture, manufacturing of furniture, office fit-outs, incubation, workplace management and hospitality.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Vasant Panchami – The coming of spring

Vasant Panchami is the Hindu festival that highlights the coming of spring. This festival is usually celebrated in Magh, which is between the months of January and February in Gregorian calendar. The color yellow holds a special meaning for this celebration as it signifies the brilliance of nature and the vibrancy of life. The whole place bursts with yellow during the festival.

The celebration of the Vasant Panchami is centered on the Hindu goddess Sarasvati. Sarasvati is the goddess of wisdom. She embodies the different facets of learning such as the sciences, arts, crafts and skills. The color yellow is the predominant color associated with the festival, the origins of which are supposed to be the fields of mustard which can be seen in Punjab and Haryana during this period. Kite flying is also commonly associated with this festival.

The festival of Vasant Panchami is celebrated with wide enthusiasm and mirth. People meet each other and exchange greetings among themselves. Gifts and sweets are exchanged among each other. People also take part in traditional music and dance performances. The festival portrays the rich cultural heritage of the Hindu community.

Catalyzing The Leader Within You

Leadership is not the private reserve of a few charismatic men and women. It is a process ordinary people use when they are bringing forth the best from themselves and others. We have made leadership into something bigger than us. We have made it into something beyond us.

Leadership is something we can all do.

Let us celebrate leadership as the everyday act of improving each other's lives. The world needs ordinary leaders. We must look for heroes in our midst.

Small , everyday acts of leadership...

- Say "Good morning" to a person standing next to you in the elevator.
- Take a minute to direct someone who is lost, even though you're rushing.
- Say "I love you" to someone you love.
- Each time you get a new item of clothing, give away something old
- Call or write to a teacher who changed your life
- Let a fellow driver merge into your lane
- Bring a box of doughnuts to share at the office
- Encourage someone who seems despondent.
- Write a note to the boss of someone who helps you, and explain how great a job that person is doing.
- Help a friend pack for a move
- Leave a generous tip for a pleasant waiter.
- Pass along a great book you've just finished reading
- Ask someone "How are you really doing?"—and then really listen to his / her response.
- Offer change when the person in front of you comes up short
- Forgive someone a debt—and never bring it up again
- Don't interrupt when someone is explaining himself
- Smile and be friendly
- Donate something you don't use.
- Stop to help
- Comfort someone in grief.
- Show appreciation, publicly.

Leadership is about making the contribution only you can make for your family and friends, your community or organization, your country or the world. Everyday acts of talking, listening and seeing together create the conditions where each and every person is able to flourish.
